Realizing Your Leadership Potential

Developed by the ACCP Task Force on Leadership

Saturday, October 20
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Hal Wood, BSBA, MBA, MSPH, from Advisory Management Services, is back by popular demand to again assist pharmacists in their careers and daily lives. This program will help you:

- Become an effective leader within the workplace
- Foster leadership principles in your daily life
- Assist you in taking an active role in your profession
- Encourage you to take an active role in your community
- Develop as a future leader of ACCP

Throughout the day, you will examine your own leadership potential and identify areas where you can exert greater leadership, whether personal, workplace, organizational, or governmental. The workshop will use a combination of didactic and interactive activities to help you develop specific leadership goals and activities for yourself.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided. Separate registration is required.
